UPDATE: INDIA PORT STRIKE AVERTED – OPERATIONS CONTINUE UNINTERRUPTED

August 28, 2024

Dear Valued Customer,

We are pleased to inform you that the planned nationwide port strike in India, scheduled to begin on August 28, 2024, has been officially called off. Following intensive negotiations, an agreement was reached between the port workers' unions and the government, resulting in the cancellation of the strike.

Key Details:

- Strike Averted: The strike has been called off after successful discussions addressing the workers' demands.
- Operations Normalized: All port operations across major Indian ports, including those in Mumbai, Kolkata, and Chennai, will continue without disruption.
- Service Continuity: APL Logistics' services remain fully operational, ensuring that your supply chains will not be affected by the previously anticipated industrial action.
